

Energy & Water
Ombudsman NSW

Uniting

Bring Your Bills Day & Financial Resilience Expo Dubbo

Uniting, the National Debt Helpline, and the Energy & Water Ombudsman NSW (EWON) are hosting a free expo to help consumers in the Dubbo area with their energy bills, overdue fines, financial issues, and more.

Come along to talk to agencies about your needs and collect information.

Where

Uniting Regional Office
1/80 Gipps Street, Dubbo
(Access via rear of the building)

When

Thursday, 17th March 2022
10:00am to 3:00pm
Free sausage sizzle, 12pm to 2:00pm.

Bookings & free transport available

You can pop in on the day, or book a time with EWON, or one of the stall holders.

If you would like a personal appointment, or to arrange free transport to the event please contact Uniting Regional Office:

Phone (02) 6885 5010

Who will be there?

- Energy & Water Ombudsman NSW (EWON)
- National Debt Helpline – Financial Counselling
- Uniting, Family Connect and Support
- Lifeline Central West – Financial Counselling
- Salvation Army Moneycare – Financial Counselling
- CatholicCare Wilcannia Forbes – Financial Counselling
- Dubbo Regional Council – Revenue/rates team
- Legal Aid
- No Interest Loans (NILS) Providers
- Energy Accounts Payment Assistance providers
- Revenue NSW
- And more.

If you can't make it on the day, you can contact EWON regarding issues with your energy company

ewon.com.au
complaints@ewon.com.au
1800 246 545
Reply Paid 86550, Sydney South NSW 1234

To speak to EWON using an interpreter, contact the Translating and Interpreting Service (TIS) on 131 450. People who are deaf, hearing impaired or who have a speech impediment can contact EWON through the National Relay Service on 133 677.